

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Adrian College	Will be open for traditional classes this fall	Test-optional for fall 2020 and fall 2021	Not scheduling campus visits at this time
Albion College	Two seven-week modules will be offered in which students may take up to two in-person courses in each module	test-optional for Fall 2020, Spring and Fall 2021	Virtual programs being offered (including individual meetings with admissions counselors), campus visits and large programs have been suspended with the possibility to resume late June
Alma College	In person classes will be offered, but the semester will now run from 8/24/2020 to 11/20/2020 with finals being delivered remotely as needed the week of 11/30-12/4	Test-optional	Video tours, online events, and virtual tours are available remotely. Beginning July 6th, both virtual and in-person options will be available
Alpena Community College	Open for traditional classes, making additional courses available online	ACT can be used for math and English course placement, but is not used for admission	Fill out the online form to schedule a campus visit
Andrews University	Planning to open as usual for the fall semester beginning 8/24/2020 and ending 11/24/2020. Andrews will be flexible and responsive to the situation as it continues to develop	Test scores required	One-on-one, individual virtual visits can be scheduled

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Aquinas College	Students will be welcomed back to campus in August with in-person instruction beginning 8/19/2020. Classes will continue through 11/21/2020. Following a break for Thanksgiving students will have one remaining week of distance learning	Test-optional for fall 2020 and fall 2021	Virtual personal visits are available in addition to virtual tours. Group visits are currently suspended
Baker College	On campus courses will resume for the fall with class size modifications that will allow for distancing	Test scores are not required for admission but can be included in application to determine scholarship eligibility	Individual virtual admissions meetings are available
Bay de Noc Community College (Bay College)	On campus courses will resume for the fall	Test scores are not required for admission	Campus visits are able to be scheduled online
Bay Mills Community College	Fall classes are planned as scheduled for on-campus and online instruction	Test scores are not required for admission	Contact campus staff to set up visits
Calvin University	Falls classes will resume in-person	Test-optional for the 2021-2022 school year	Campus visits will re-open on July 6th

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Central Michigan University	Fall semester will take place in person as planned with revised dates, 8/17/2020-11/25/2020. Students will have additional opportunities to choose between classroom engagement and synchronous out of class engagement	Test-optional for spring 2021 and fall 2021	In-person tours are being scheduled starting July 6th
Cleary University	Fall classes will resume in person beginning 8/24/2020 and concluding 11/25/2020. The last three weeks of the semester will take place remotely after Thanksgiving	Test scores required	Small groups may visit campus with appointment made in advance
College for Creative Studies	Students will be welcomed back to campus for the fall on 8/31/2020. On campus instruction will conclude 11/25/2020 with remote instruction continuing through 12/12/2020	Test scores not required	Virtual tour is available online, all in person events have been cancelled
Concordia University	In person classes will begin 8/24/2020, contingent on COVID developments throughout the summer.	Test scores required	Virtual and personalized visit options are available
Cornerstone University	On campus, traditional courses will resume this fall	Cornerstone will be test-optional	Virtual and individual in-person tours are available when scheduled in advance

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Davenport University	Classes will be offered both on campus and online for fall 2020	SAT/ACT scores are recommended to be sent in with application	Virtual meetings available
Delta College	Fall 2020 decision has not been made	Test scores not required	Tours can be requested online
Eastern Michigan University	EMU plans to resume on-campus operations for the fall semester	Test-optional for fall 2020 students with a 3.0 GPA and above	Online visit options are available
Ferris State University	FSU is preparing for in-person classes this fall	Test-optional	Virtual events are available
Finlandia University	Plans to be open for face-to-face instruction fall 2020	Test-optional	Virtual options are available and visits can be scheduled online
Glen Oaks Community College	Planning to open for in-person instruction fall 2020	Test scores can be used for course placement, but are not required for admission	Tours are available by appointment
Gogebic Community College	Multiple instruction options will be available including in person, online, and hybrid	Test scores can be used for course placement, but are not required for admission	Tours can be arranged by contacting the admissions office
Grace Christian University	GCU is making every effort to have on campus classes and programming for undergraduates in fall 2020	Test scores are required	Virtual options are available and personal visits can be scheduled

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Grand Rapids Community College	GRCC is working towards having classes in-person for fall 2020	Test scores required	Virtual admissions sessions are available every Friday
Grand Valley State University	GVSU is preparing to open to campus with face-to-face learning for fall 2020 only	Test-optional for fall 2021	Virtual admissions appointments, academic sessions, lunches, and tours are available online
Great Lakes Christian College	No fall information posted as of 6/18/2020	Test scores required	Tours can be scheduled online
Henry Ford College	Fall semester courses will be offered in multiple formats with some face-to-face	Test scores can be used for course placement, but are not required for admission	Admissions events have been moved online
Hillsdale College	Classes will resume as usual for the fall 2020 semester	Test scores required	Admissions virtual events are available in addition to virtual meetings with admissions counselors and virtual tours
Hope College	Hope is planning to provide on campus instruction in the fall	Not required , will be considered in admission if submitted	Virtual tours and appointments with admissions counselors are available
Jackson College	Fall 2020 will be 100% online instruction	Test scores required	Virtual admissions meetings can be scheduled with each campus
Kalamazoo College	Decision regarding Fall 2020 will be communicated with staff and students by August 1 2020	Test scores not required	Virtual visit opportunities can be scheduled online, in-person tours will resume the week of July 15th

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Kalamazoo Valley Community College	While the majority of fall classes will be held online, some courses that require labs, including those in the industrial trades, health careers and wellness and physical education, will be held on campus, in person. Additionally, some liberal arts courses will have face-to-face instruction. The updated class schedule is now available to view online.	Test scores required	Virtual tours of each campus are available as well as online appointments with the enrollment team
Keweenaw Bay Ojibwa Community College	Courses are planned to be in-person for fall 2020	Test scores are not required	N/A
Kellogg Community College	Fall 2020 courses will be offered in a mix of online, traditional, and hybrid models	Test scores not required	Reopening to the public on 6/29/2020
Kettering University	Anticipates returning to on-campus with face-to-face instruction beginning July 13th	Test scores required	Virtual meetings and tours are available
Kirtland Community College	Facilities were re-opened for in-person courses beginning 6/8/2020	Test scores not required	Contact admissions for more information
Kuyper College	Classes are planned to take place in-person for fall 2020	Test scores required	Virtual and in-person opportunities available

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Lake Michigan College	Fall classes will be in person pending the status of stay home stay safe orders	Test scores required , contact admissions if there are issues with test scores	All campuses can be explored online
Lake Superior State University	The fall 2020 semester will begin on 8/10/2020 with face-to-face instruction	Test-optional Not required for admission, but can be submitted for placement in college courses	In person tours resumed in June Campus individual and group tours are currently on hold, video conference appointments are available
Lansing Community College	Most fall 2020 classes will be online, but hybrid classes will be taught if it's safe to do so
Lawrence Technological University	The plan is to open for face-to-face instruction for fall 2020	Fall 2021 applicants have the option of applying with or without test scores	On-campus tours will resume July 6th, virtual tours are always available
Macomb Community College	Fall classes will begin as scheduled on 8/17/2020, with online and hybrid formats	Test scores not required	Campus is closed through 9/7/2020

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Madonna University	Courses will take place on campus for fall 2020	If you have been denied the opportunity to take the ACT/SAT exam due to test cancellation, please submit your transcript and an essay (250 words or less) indicating the reasons why you want to attend Madonna University. Otherwise scores are required	Virtual tours are available, individual virtual meetings are available, as well as virtual visit days. In-person campus tours will be available by appointment beginning July 6th
Michigan State University	MSU is planning to reopen campus with in-person courses for the fall 2020 semester	Fall 2021 applicants will have the option to apply without test scores, but students who wish to receive full consideration for merit scholarships must submit test scores	In-person admissions events have been canceled through 8/28/2020, virtual options are available

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Michigan Technological University	MTU plans to return to in-person instruction for fall 2020	Test scores are optional for fall 2021 applicants with a 3.00 or higher. MTU will work with fall 2020 students on an individual basis. Students with below a 3.00 GPA and homeschool students must submit official test scores. Test scores must also be submitted to be considered for merit-based scholarships.	Campus visits are on hold until at least 6/22, a video tour is available online
Mid Michigan College	Course offerings for fall 2020 include a mix of online, hybrid, and on-campus courses	Not required for admission	Virtual tours are available, in-person can be scheduled
Monroe County Community College	The college has moved about 95% of its courses to online and hybrid formats for the fall	Test scores required	Requests to visit can be completed online
Montcalm Community College	MCC has expanded their online offerings for fall 2020	Test scores not required	Only people conducting official college business may be on campus. Summer classes are online. Student support services remain available online and through Live Chat.

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Mott Community College	Many classes will be shifted online, hands on/experiential courses may still be available in person	Students under the age of 22 need to submit test scores	Individual, group, and virtual tours are available
Muskegon Community College	Fall classes will be available in a variety of formats including online	Test scores not required for admission, can be used for course placement	All upcoming admissions events have been shifted to virtual
North Central Michigan College	Planning for the return of face-to-face instruction this fall	Not required for admission, but can be submitted for placement in college courses	Tours can be scheduled via phone or email, details can be found on their website
Northern Michigan University	Face-to-face instruction is set to resume this fall with an earlier start date of 8/17/2020 and end date of 11/24/2020	Test scores are not required for admission	Tours can be scheduled for August 10 or later
Northwestern Michigan College	Fall 2020 classes will be available in a variety of flexible formats, including face-to-face	Not required for admission, but can be submitted for placement in college courses	Individual and group tours have been suspended through the end of August
Northwood University	In person instruction is planned for fall 2020	Test scores are required if students have taken a test, but if unable due to COVID-19 applications will be evaluated without test scores	Guided virtual tours can be scheduled online

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Oakland Community College	Fall 2020 courses will be offered in a mix of online, traditional, and hybrid models	Test scores are not required for admission, but can be used for placement in college courses	Campus tours are temporarily suspended, virtual options are available
Oakland University	Face-to-face instruction is set to resume this fall	Test-optional for fall 2020 and 2021 for students with a 3.0 GPA and above	Virtual tours and events are available, in person programming has been suspended
Olivet College	In person instruction is planned for fall 2020	Test scores are required	Virtual tours are available
Rochester University	In-person classes are planned to resume for fall 2020	Test scores are required in most circumstances	Visits can be scheduled via online form
Sacred Heart Major Seminary	No plan for fall 2020 has been released	Required for certain programs	Visitors are encouraged to contact 313-596-7424 prior to visiting
Saginaw Chippewa Tribal college	Fall courses are being planned in a hybrid format	N/A	Visitors are permitted on campus by appointment only
Saginaw Valley State University	SVSU plans to welcome students back to campus for fall 2020	Test optional for fall 2020 for students with a 3.0 GPA and above	Virtual visits can be scheduled

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Schoolcraft College	Fall classes begin 8/31 with remote, online, hybrid, and some face-to-face options	Students can submit SAT/ACT scores during the application process, or they can take Schoolcraft placement tests during the application process	Virtual on campus tours and admissions presentations are available online
Siena Heights University	On-ground classes will resume 8/25/2020 and end 11/24/2020. Remote/online classes will continue from there through 12/11/2020	SHU is a test-optional institution	Individual campus visits resumed in mid-June and may be scheduled online
Southwestern Michigan College	Specific plans about the fall semester will be communicated by July 1, hoping to operate as normal as possible	Test scores are not required for admission, but can be used for placement in college courses	Virtual tour is available online, in person tours can be scheduled online
Spring Arbor University	Face-to-face instruction will return for Fall 2020	Test scores are required for admission	Virtual visits are available
St.Clair County Community College	Face-to-face instruction will be available for fall 2020	Test scores are not required for admission, but can be used for placement in college courses	Tours can be scheduled online

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
University of Detroit Mercy	For the fall term on the McNichols Campus, the University will adopt a flexible hybrid learning environment for courses with face-to-face instruction. This model combines in-person and virtual learning	Will be test-optional for most programs	In-person campus visits have been temporarily suspended, virtual sessions are available
University of Michigan	In person courses will resume 8/31/2020 and end 11/20/2020. Remote classes and final exams will continue from there through 12/18/2020	Test-flexible for 2021	In-person tours are cancelled through December, virtual opportunities are available
University of Michigan - Dearborn	U of M Dearborn will have a hybrid format this fall with classes meeting online and in-person. The semester will begin on September 1st with a shift to all virtual after Thanksgiving	Test-optional for fall 2021 only	All UM-Dearborn events are cancelled or moved to virtual format until August 22nd
University of Michigan - Flint	Classes will be offered both on campus and online for fall 2020	Test-optional for fall 2021 only	Virtual meetings with admissions counselors can be scheduled online and virtual tours are available
Walsh College	Flexible course options will be available in the fall, including online, remote, and in-person	Test scores are not required for admission	Virtual and phone appointments are available

College COVID Response Guide

This document was last updated the week of 6/29/2020. As COVID-19 is a rapidly developing virus, information on this sheet is subject to change quickly. This document will be updated once per month, but if pressing updates need to be made, contact autumn@micollegeaccess.org

College Name	Fall 2020 Plan	Standardized Tests	Tours
Washtenaw Community College	On campus operations suspended through at least August 1	Not required for admission	Tours can be scheduled online
Wayne County Community College District	WCCCD plans to welcome students back to campus for face-to-face learning for the fall of 2020	Not required for admission	Virtual tours are available
Wayne State University	WSU plans to re-open as scheduled for the fall, specific plans can be expected around July 15th	Test-optional for fall 2020	Campus visits are suspended for the time being. Online connection opportunities are available
West Shore Community College	Cautiously optimistic that courses will be in-person in the fall	Test scores are not required for admission, but can be used for placement in college courses	No tour information available on the website
Western Michigan University	WMU plans to return to in-person classes for fall 2020	WMU has adopted a test-optional policy for the remainder of fall 2020 and fall 2021 entry terms	Daily in-person campus visits are temporarily suspended, virtual engagement opportunities and tours are available. Click here for more.